

ROAR Habits for Success:

We believe in the importance of developing students who are knowledgeable in content areas and also have the attributes to be successful learners. Therefore, our goals for students include a demonstration of positive behaviors as well as academic performance. The Habits of Success Indicators are behaviors that lead to one's success as a student. The following success indicator descriptions provide examples of what we want students to demonstrate:

R espectful of others' rights, feelings, and property	O n-Task and follows directions	A ct Safe and demonstrate self-control	R esponsible for completing assigned tasks
Speaks with appropriate timing and tone Demonstrates politeness and kindness to others Reciprocates respect with adults and peers Demonstrates honesty Shows appreciation for themselves and others	Participates in class discussion and/or activities Participates in setting and monitoring goals Responds to feedback and guidance Participates well in small and/or large group activities	Demonstrates self-control with hands, feet, and objects and personal space Takes responsibility for own actions Uses technology in accordance with District 117 policy Respects the personal property of others	Submits assignments on time Submits assignments following directions Demonstrates being prepared with materials Learns from mistakes and accepts responsibility Is in class and on time

Rarely Successful	1
Sometimes Successful	2
Consistently Successful	3