Reading News

This week, the students will learn how to identify the main topic of a text, and then retell key details from the text to better describe the main topic.

The text that we will read this week will be about the Moon.

This Week Events:

Homework due Friday or Monday
Spelling Test Friday
October 30 -Halloween Party and Parades

Upcoming Events:

November 6 -Team Day- Early Dismissal-2:00
November 11 -No School, Veterans Day

What are we writing about?

We will continue to learn how to write short informational texts. In the texts they will read, the students will look for facts that they can use to write their own informational texts. This week we will write informational texts about the Sun.
