Reading News

On Monday and Tuesday, the students will take the unit test. In it they will:

- Read two given passages
- Identify the main topic
- List key details about the main topic
- Name some of the text features
- Label the diagram
- Describe what they learned from the given picture.

On Wednesday we will begin our new unit, The Great Big World. In it, we will be reading about people from different cultures, their customs, and their holidays. This week, we will read and talk about how people celebrate Thanksgiving. We will also focus on identifying information provided by pictures and information in the text. We will discuss the information provided by the author and the illustrator.

What are we writing about?

We will continue informational writing about space. This week we will write about astronauts.
